Report of SA Hubert F. Gordon dated 11/14/47 at Los Angeles, captioned as follows:

"PREFABRICATING HOUSING INVESTIGATION ANTITRUST"

"General Panel Corporation of California, Inc. has been in production only since August 1947. Serious problems encountered in purchases confined to plywood, plumbing equipment and nails. Other materials present no unusual difficulties. ALBERT WOHLSTETTER, Vice President in Charge of Productions, formerly in Priority Section of the National Housing Administration, denies having evidence of antitrust violations, although he claims he is convinced plywood manufacturers act as a unit in their reluctance to sell new customers...Nails not readily available through normal wholesale sources so that General Panel has to resort to the so called grey market. No indications so far that this company is encountering difficulties with dealers, reflecting attempts to restrict distribution by arbitrary insistence on certain brands of equipment.

"ALBERT WOHLSTETTER, Vice President in Charge of Productions at General Panel Corporation of California, Inc., was interviewed at his office, 1101 West Victory Blvd. The following information was obtained from him, and was supplemented to a certain extent [redacted] b7D [redacted] by information from Arch Davison, Purchasing Agent and Jack C. Long, Master Plumber handling the subcontract for General Panel Corporation.

"WOHLSTETTER served during the war in the Priority Section of the National Housing Administration in Wash. D. C., and claims to be thoroughly familiar with the general situation in the housing industry.

"WOHLSTETTER stated that he felt he had not experienced any activities which provided acceptable evidence of violations of the antitrust laws.

"He explained that General Panel Corporation was attempting to establish itself at a time when conditions made it very difficult and he felt that the use of the company's name might jeopardize his chances to cement certain necessary relationships with suppliers. He insisted, however, that he was not presently withholding anything which he felt would be of value since he had not actually experienced activities which he considered were evidence of antitrust violations."

[redacted] b7D
[redacted] furnished the following information
on 2/5/64:

[redacted] advised that during Christmas, 1963,
The American Economics Association held its annual meeting in Boston, Mass., and two economists from Rand, Egon Neuberger and CHARLES WOLF, delivered papers at this meeting. During the course of this meeting, Kazakov met both of these Rand Economists, congratulated them on the papers they delivered and asked for copies.

"It is the opinion of the Los Angeles Office that Neuberger and WOLF should be interviewed to ascertain details of this contact with Kazakov and to find out if Kazakov has made any recent attempts to contact them."

"VLADIMIR MIKHAILOVICH KAZAKOV"

"CHARLES WOLF, JR., Economist, Rand Corporation, furnished the following information to Special Agents of the FBI on May 18, 1964:

"WOLF said that he attended the Economic Association Convention in Boston, Mass., Dec. 27, 28, and 29, 1963 at which time he delivered a paper on 'Savings
and Measurement of Self Help' in Developing Countries
on 12/28/63.

"After delivering his paper, WOLF was approached by a male individual who introduced himself as Vladimir Kazakov of the Soviet Union Delegation, saying that he had enjoyed Wolf's talk and that he would appreciate a copy of his lecture. WOLF said his paper was not classified.

[REDACTED]
Continued:

"WOLF told Kazakov to do this but to date this request has not been made by Kazakov. WOLF said he talked to Kazakov only five to ten minutes and has not seen nor heard from him since.

"Both Neuberger and WOLF described Kazakov as very pleasant to talk to, 'smooth', speaking good English, and not 'pushy or aggressive'."
